

THE HOLOCAUST BY BULLETS IN CENTRAL AND EASTERN EUROPE

Join Yahad – In Unum and The Florida Holocaust Museum for a free teacher webinar to learn about this often forgotten but essential chapter of Holocaust history, to hear the voices who witnessed it and to discover some of the thousands of places where it was perpetrated.

TUESDAY
OCTOBER 1

5:30 PM –
7:30 PM EST

ZOOM WEBINAR

During this webinar you will:

- Be introduced to the key elements of the Holocaust by Bullets.
- Learn about Yahad – In Unum's investigative methodology of research and field work.
- Discover the range of primary source materials central to Yahad – In Unum's work.
- Investigate in depth an excerpt from an eyewitness testimony and how this can be used to enhance student critical thinking skills.
- Analyze the five steps of the crime typical of nearly every mass shooting perpetrated by the Einsatzgruppen.
- Learn how to access and use Yahad – In Unum's educational tools.

After the webinar you will receive:

- A handout with a summary of the information provided during the webinar.
- A list of useful links, including to Yahad – In Unum's Study Guide for Educators.
- A list of recommended, ready-to-use activities.
- A certificate of completion.

The FHM is giving away 4 bundles of Father Patrick Desbois's book "The Holocaust by Bullets" and "The Holocaust by Bullets: A Study Guide for Educators" created by The FHM and Yahad – In Unum.
