START STRONG, TEACH WITH CONFIDENCE:

HOLOCAUST EDUCATION WEEK LAUNCH

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 2026 | 5:30 – 7:30 PM ET
VIRTUAL

How do we answer one of the most critical questions students ask when learning about the Holocaust: Where does antisemitism come from?

Join ICS and The Florida Holocaust Museum for an empowering joint professional learning event designed to elevate your classroom impact during this year's Holocaust Education Week (Nov. 9-13).

Discover over 2,000 years of history through the evolution of antisemitism, from its ancient religious origins to its economic, political, and racialized forms, and learn how these patterns persist today to provide the context needed to teach about the Holocaust with accuracy and nuance.

What You'll Gain:

- Classroom-Ready Tools: Walk away with interactive primary sources and adaptable student activities.
- Essential Content Knowledge: Deepen your understanding of pre-20th-century history to tackle complex student questions with clarity.
- Museum Resources & Support: The Florida Holocaust Museum, a service provider contracted by the Florida Department of Education, has provided Holocaust education across the state for over 30 years. Explore the FHM's tools, materials, and opportunities to support your teaching during Holocaust Education Week and beyond.

Start Holocaust Education Week with confidence by gaining expert content, interactive tools, and Museum resources designed to inspire your teaching and empower your students all year long.
